Official French language exams and tests:

- TCF (Test de Connaissance du Français): the French language test was conceived by the Centre International d'Études Pédagogiques (CIEP) and is intended for people who are not native French speakers and who, for professional, personal or academic reasons, wish to have their competency in French assessed and certified simply, reliably and quickly. All candidates receive a certificate that grades them at one of the six levels of competency as defined by the Council of Europe (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). The certificate is valid for 2 years (from the issued date by the CIEP).

- DILF (Diplôme Initial de Langue Française: Initial Diploma in French Language): a qualification in French language that assesses basic users (level A1.1 of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework for Languages). It is awarded by the French Ministry of Education. It can be issued to foreign people and to non-French speaking French people who do not hold a degree from the French secondary education. It is an initial step towards the DELF and DALF.
- DELF (Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française) and DALF (Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française): French language certificates for people who are not native French speakers, administered by the French Ministry of Education. The DELF curriculum is divided into 4 independent diplomas that correspond to the first 4 levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The DALF is composed of 2 independent diplomas that correspond to the 2 highest levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. They are valid indefinitely.
- DFP (Diplômes de français professionnel de la CCIP – Diplomas of Professional French from the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Paris Ile-de-France): a range of eleven degrees for those who wish to assess their skills in professional French communication: business, law, tourism and hotel industry, secretarial work, sciences and technology, medicine. The DFP levels A2 and B1 are for those who want to function in French on a social and general professional level within a general business context. The DFP levels B2, C1 and C2 assess communicative and comprehension ability in a professional context, as well as knowledge of business terminology and concepts. The DFP for specific purposes are for those who wish to communicate in French in a specific professional context.

Meals: Biarritz: breakfast, dinner and Sunday lunches are all taken with the host family. Packed lunches are provided for weekdays and excursions. Nice: all meals are taken at the tennis club, only 5 minutes away from the residence. Packed lunches are provided for excursions.

Special dietary requirements can be catered for if the school is informed at the time of booking.

Practical information

Supervision/Safety

A qualified group leader runs the activity programme and supervises the students. The supervision ratio is 1 to 8 for water activities and 1 to 12 for other activities and excursions.

Transportation

In Biarritz, students can either walk or take the bus together to school. All the details will be given before the start of the course. Host families will also be able to help with the itinerary. Bus pass not included (approx. 12€ per week). In Nice, the programme takes place in a 24-hour supervised camp. Transportation to and from the activities and excursions will be led by our group leaders.

Transfers

Return transfers are included from Biarritz or Nice airport or train station. Host families or our group leaders will pick the students up on arrival and drop them off on departure. Students should arrive on Sunday afternoon and leave on Saturday morning.

Travel details must be confirmed 15 days before arrival (point of arrival, time, flight number...).

Parental authorisations

A signed authorisation from parents is required if students are allowed out unaccompanied during the free evenings (with a curfew). The school also requires a signed health form for each student (with medical records and requirements). Other documents may be asked to the parents.
